 Amol Khedkar
Senior Consultant - Emerging technologies at FutureBridge
October 16, 2012, Dinesh managed Amol directly

Amol is very sincere, determined and hardworking engineer. He worked for me for almost two years and handled technically challenging assignments. He had developed very good relationship with customer. I had started more and more relying on him for detailed involvement in the projects and interactions with customer before he opt for persuing MBA from IIM, Indore. I have no hesitation to recommend Amol as I am pretty confident that wherever he goes he will be delight to have in the team.
