Club Service 3

On 25th September, 2017 Club Service 3 of ELESA was successfully organized in Classroom No. 11 and 12. Elesaites Sneha Shete and Vrushali Shikhe started the proceedings at 6 pm by introducing the students with the 'E' terms which was basically the theme of CS.

They introduced with various terms that start with the letter E and which are important for us to know. Moving forward they conducted a debate in classroom with each row being a team and 2 students from each row representing a team on Cashless Economy. Whether it is safe to do online transactions or not. President Shubham Mhatre and Elesaites Swaroopa Ingale were the judges for the same.

After the debate it was time for Elesaites Shrihari and Tanvi to take an aptitude session in which they appropriately made the students understand the basic concepts of ratio and proportion. They explained it with the help of certain examples so that it becomes easier for students to understand. Elesaites Atul took a session on Decision Making.

Then students of FY were asked to shift in Classroom No.11 for their technical session which was conducted by Elesaithe Dhanraj Bhosale and the topic of their technical session was basics of arduino whereas Elesaithe Sachin and Komal took the technical session for SY to final year students on the topic Designing a circuit with the help of op-amps and zener diode which acts as a switch in farms, basically agricultural needs.

After technical session it was time for the declaration of Performer of the day which was presented by President Shubham Mhatre to Siddhant.
