

SHIELD(Suspect interrogation)

George Cregan

1. Where were you at the time of Martin's death?

"I was at The Royal Cruising Club" he answered quickly.

2. Can you elaborate with whom?

With his gleaming eyes, being enough certain he replied, "With my girlfriend Miss Maren." He looked assertive about his relationship.

3. What was your relation with Mr. Brown?

"He was my colleague as well as good friend ", speaking with much confidence though his words are not clearly pronounced.

4. What is the nature of relation between you and Mr. Martin?

By ignoring the eye contact with investigator George started looking towards wall and answered that he did not have that much of contact since when Martin got promoted as CEO. He added that he had seen Martin on a day before his murder, when he was reporting him.

5. Did you find anything suspicious in Mr. Brown's attitude or his approach towards work?

Thinking for a while, he answered, "Nothing much, but for last few odd months, he seemed negligent towards his work in office".

6. Weren't you supposed to be jealous of Mr. Brown getting selected as CEO of the company against you not for 1 but for 2 occasions...?

With lacking confidence he said, "I maintained professionalism and always supported the good cause for the company".

7. But ultimately you will be the only person to be CEO now. So how would you justify yourself?

Staying quiet for a moment, he tried to convince the same thing about professionalism and then confidently said that he thought of himself being the best choice for the post of CEO mentioning to see his past records.
