- The detective asked everyone to show him their hands and found out who lied to him. That person was the murderer. Who is the murderer? How did Stevens discover the criminal?

Answer:

- 3) Ray Whitcombe is found dead in his office at his desk. The police have narrowed the suspects down to three people: Mrs. Barbara Whitcombe, Ray's wife; Mr. Jason McCubbins, Ray's business partner; and Mr. Harold Nichols, Ray's best friend. All three visited Mr. Whitcombe the day of his murder, but all three provide the police with stories of explanation as to the reason for their visit. Police found Mr. Whitcombe with his wrist watch still on his right arm, a torn up picture of his wife laying on the floor beside the trash can, and an ink pen in his right hand. On the desk, the police found a name plate, a telephone that was off the hook, and a personal calendar turned to the July 5th page with 7B91011 written on it. After examining this evidence, the police knew their suspect. Who was it?

Answer:

- 4) Holmes is called upon on a crime scene.
A woman has been killed and there are only three suspects to the murder, the three people who were present on the scene.
- Alice, the best friend of the woman who was present for a night out.
 - Debra, who was accompanying Alice.
 - Sia, who is the house maid.

A note is found in the hands of the victim, which reads:

'Second of January, Third of July, Fourth of April, Second of October, Fourth of December'.

The note was all Sherlock needed to find out who was the killer. Can you find the killer too?

Answer:

- 5) The store room of your house is locked with a certain lock that can be closed without a key but requires a key to open which you own (there is no duplicate key). You decide to move your old stuff in the storeroom. After keeping the things carefully, you lock it back again perfectly. The next day, a dead body is found in your closed store room. Since only you have the key to the store room and you live alone, the police suspects you as a murderer. You can't understand anything when suddenly a thought strikes your mind. There is a possible way using which the dead body could have been placed by someone else. Can you find that way so you can tell the police and prove yourself to be innocent?

Answer:

- 6) British Police inspects a room where there are no windows, no doors, no tables and is almost empty expect there is just a puddle of water. They found a dead woman who obviously hung herself from the ceiling, but they are not able to figure out how this had happened.
