CONFIDENTIAL

George Cregan is currently working as a COO for managing the company's day to day operations and reporting them to the chief executive officer (CEO). George lived near I Canon's Rd, Bristol, BS1 5TX. He belonged from an average family. There were four members in his family. Mr. George graduated from Clarkson university. After completing his education he joined Alner Hamblin Elect. Ltd. He worked there as a COO for 3 years. Because of his achievements and qualities of working with dedication, his colleague Ms. Cheryl who is already a board member suggested that Mr. George Cregan could be a Chief Executive Officer. As Martin Brown was a CEO of the same company, Mr. Cregan was found to be jealous of him. Yet being jealous is so destructive and unattractive in the workplace he did not promoted as a CEO.

Though George was expert in his work, due to selfish nature he was not really good as a team worker. Cregan was dreaming of being CEO and started the work accordingly.
